May 20, 1930.

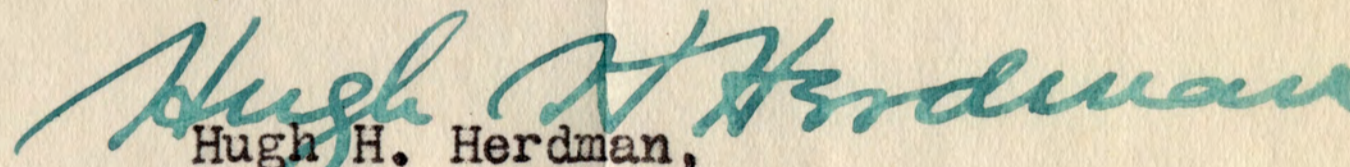

Miss Valentine Pritchard,
People's Institute and Free Dispensary,
4th and Jefferson Streets,
Portland, Oregon.

My dear Miss Pritchard:

Our campaign committee has asked us to prepare some figures shortly after the first of June, which will require that we have your reports as promptly as may be.

Will you kindly see that they are forwarded as early as possible, and very much oblige?

Very truly yours,

Hugh H. Herdman,
Executive Secretary.
