Dear Miss Pritchard:

I wish to confirm the call which both Mr. Dudley and myself made on you this morning in regard to a division of your business with the McKesson-Pacific Drug Company.

As I stated before, we carry a complete stock of drugs, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, serums, hospital supplies and those things which go to make up a most complete wholesale drug house. We are prepared to give you prompt delivery on any of your requirements at any time. We carry only standard brands of goods, and we are certain that you will never have cause to complain against the quality of our merchandise. I can assure you also that our prices will be as low as we can consistently make them, and as I told you this morning, we would be very appreciative of a chance to serve you from this office.

We would indeed be pleased if you would pay us a visit some time, and furthermore we will be very glad to take care of your personal requirements from our stock if you wish to avail yourself of this service.

I wish to thank you very kindly for the reception you tendered both Mr. Dudley and myself this morning. It is always a source of pleasure to have as friendly a visit and receive the courteous treatment which you tendered us whenever we make an initial call on parties whom we have not come in contact with heretofore.

We both tender you our thanks, and trust that we will have the opportunity to serve you in the very near future.
